Concurrent Enrollment Students

Students currently enrolled in a Washington County high school that would like to complete Utah Tech classes as part of their high school program are concurrent enrollment students. Concurrent enrollment students must complete the admission process to be considered for the program.

- Complete online concurrent enrollment application
- Pay the non-refundable application fee
- Be a high school junior or senior
- Have a high school GPA of at least 3.0
- Official ACT or SAT scores, or take the Accuplacer test at the Utah Tech Testing Center (<http://www.utahtech.edu/testing/>).

See Concurrent Enrollment (catalog.utahtech.edu/campusresources/concurrentenrollment/) section of this catalog.

Early Enrollment Students

Early enrollment students are students whose class has not yet graduated from high school and who meet at least one of the following qualifications:

- Are currently enrolled in high school and want to attend university classes (on their own -- not concurrent enrollment through the school district).
- Are home school students whose class has not yet graduated from high school.
- Have been officially released from Utah compulsory school attendance requirements.

These students may enroll in university courses for credit if they complete all of the following:

- Submit Utah Tech Admission Application (<https://apply.utahtech.edu/apply/>) online.
- Pay non-refundable application fee.
- Demonstrate college readiness by submitting ACT, SAT, or Accuplacer scores equivalent to the following ACT minimums for early enrollment students.

English	19 or higher
Math	18 or higher
Reading	17 or higher

- Submit a parent/guardian permission form.
  - Emancipated minors may submit court documentation showing such status in lieu of parent/guardian permission.
- Submit one of the following:
  - A letter from the student's local school district stating that the student has been approved to take university classes. A high school transcript must accompany this letter.
  - A letter from the student's local school district stating that the student has been released from compulsory education.
  - A letter from the student's local school district certifying that the student is a home school student for that year. Home school students must supply such certification each year until the student's class graduates from high school.
