

Integrated Arts (IART)

IART 1010. Integrated Arts (FA). 3 Hours.

Fulfills the General Education requirement in the Arts. It is a hands-on, multidisciplinary introduction to creative processes in the arts. This course consists of 4 four-week introductory sessions in fine arts practices: music, dance, theatre, and visual arts. I-Art aims to foster collaboration, innovation, and grit, while teaching foundational knowledge of artistic methods, forms, movements, and vocabularies, and inculcating deeper understanding and appreciation of the arts. COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES (CLOs) At the successful conclusion of this course, students will be able to: 1. Understand and apply creative processes relevant to fine arts disciplines. 2. Analyze creative work and content (criteria would include correct vocabulary). 3. Students will be able to integrate learning by making connections between concepts within the fine arts disciplines. FA, SP.
